

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of ) Triad Management Services, Inc., et al. ) MURs 4568, 4633, 4634 and 4736

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. ACTIONS RECOMMENDED: 1) Take no further action as to certain respondents in MUR 4736 and close the file as to those respondents. 2) Sever all the respondents identified below from MURs 4568, 4633, 4634 and 4736; open a new MUR and transfer those respondents into the new MUR. 3) Close the new MUR for the reasons discussed below.

II. DISCUSSION

These matters concern activities engaged in by Carolyn Malenick d/b/a Triad Management Services ("Triad/CSM"), Triad Management, Inc. ("Triad, Inc."), Carolyn Malenick, as corporate officer, Robert Cone and thirty-one (31) other respondents during the 1996 election cycle. On June 2, 1998, the Commission found reason to believe that, during the 1996 election cycle, Triad Inc., Carolyn Malenick, Robert Cone and other respondents violated various provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") in connection with MURs 4568, 4633 and 4634. On February 23 and July 20, 1999, the Commission made reason to believe findings against Triad Inc., Ms. Malenick, Robert Cone and a number of other respondents regarding alleged violations of the Act in connection with MUR 4736 (which included some allegations that were severed from MUR 4783). Due to the related and overlapping nature of the

28 allegations in the complaints from each of these matters, the Commission decided that 29 MURs 4568, 4633, 4634 and 4736 would be investigated together.

30 The file in these matters has been closed with respect to all named respondents
31 with the exception of Triad/CSM, Triad Inc., Carolyn Malenick, Robert Cone, Meredith
32 O'Rourke, Peter Flaherty, as President of Citizens for Reform, Carlos Rodriguez, Robert 33 Moore and Jeff Larson.<sup>1</sup> This Office is now recommending that the Commission open a 34 new MUR, sever those respondents with respect to whom these matters are closed and 35 transfer those individuals and political committees severed from MURs 4568, 4633, 4634
36 and 4736 into this new MUR as respondents. And then, given that the Commission's 37 investigation relating to the 1995-1996 activities of these respondents has been fully 38 resolved, immediately close that new MUR. Now that the Commission's motion for a 39 protective order in McConnell, et al. v. FEC, et al. has been denied, creating and then 40 closing this new MUR in the manner described above will result in the placement of 41 dispositions and disclosable materials on the public record

42
43 This Commission action will leave Triad/CSM, Triad Inc., Carolyn Malenick and 44 Robert Cone as respondents in MURs 4568, 4633, 4634 and 4736. The Commission has 45 found probable cause against Triad/CSM, Triad Inc. and Ms. Malenick, and after 46 unsuccessful conciliation, their liability for their 1995 and 1996 activities will be 47 adjudicated through the pending district court litigation in which they are defendants. See <sup>1</sup> Meredith O'Rourke, Peter Flaherty, as President of Citizens for Reform, Carlos Rodriguez, Jeff Larson, as Vice President of Strategic Telecommunications and Bob Moore, as President of Moore Information, were generated as respondents in MUR 4736. The Commission took no action at this time with respect to these respondents. This Office is now recommending that the Commission take no further action with respect to these respondents and close the file in MURs 4568, 4633, 4634 and 4736 as to them. This Office is also recommending that these respondents be severed from MURs 4568, 4634 and 4736 and transferred to the new MUR.

48 FEC v. Carolyn Malenick d/b/a Triad Management Services, et al., Civ. No. 02-CV-49 01237 (DDC). Although Mr. Cone's liability for violations of the Act committed during 50 the 1996 election cycle was resolved through a conciliation agreement, Triad, Inc.'s,
51 Carolyn Malenick's and Robert Cone's liability for activities undertaken during the 1998
52 election cycle remains unresolved. Maintaining Triad, Inc., Ms. Malenick and Mr. Cone 53 as respondents within MURs 4568, 4633, 4634 and 4736 will permit this Office to 54 present new recommendations to the Commission relating to their Triad related activities.

55 For the reasons set forth above, this Office recommends that the Commission 56 sever from MURs 4568, 4633, 4634 and 4736 the following respondents: Citizens for 57 Reform; Peter Flaherty, as President of Citizens for Reform; Citizens for the Republic

68 Stauffer; Meredith O'Rourke; Carlos Rodriguez; Jeff Larson, as Vice-President of 69 Strategic Telecommunications; and Robert Moore, as President of Moore Information. In 70 conjunction with this action, the Office recommends opening up a new MUR naming as

71 respondents those individual and political committee respondents severed from MURs 72 4568, 4633, 4634 and 4736. The Office further recommends immediately closing this 73 new MUR. The only remaining respondents in MURs 4568, 4633, 4634 and 4736 will be 74 Carolyn Malenick d/b/a Triad Management Services, Triad Management, Inc., Carolyn 75 Malenick, as corporate officer, and Robert Cone.
